Jim Carpenter Speaker

About This Event

Jim Carpenter is truly a man of many skills. He started a franchise system that no one ever heard of before to feed wild birds and support his love of nature. The franchise is a continuing success and provides many budding entrepreneurs an opportunity to do something different in their life. While Jim doesn't hold a business degree, he has demonstrated the same ingenuity and drive as Steve Jobs did with Apple and I would say both are cut from the mold.
